Our Commitment to Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy, we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our homepage and at every point where personally identifiable information may be requested.

The Information We Collect:

This notice applies to all information collected or submitted on The Center for Violence Prevention's website. On a certain page, you can donate. The types of personal information collected at this pages are:

- Name
- Address
- Email address
- Phone number
- Credit/Debit Card Information

On this page, you can submit information about other people. For example, if you send a gift in someone's honor and want it sent directly to the recipient, you will need to submit the recipient's address. In this circumstance, the types of personal information collected are:

- Name
- Address
- Phone Number

The Way We Use Information:

We use the information you provide about yourself to provide services to you. We do not share this information with outside parties except as you direct us.

We use return email addresses to answer the email we receive. Such addresses are not used for any other purpose and are not shared with outside parties.

We never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

Our Commitment to Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Our Commitment to Children's Privacy:

Protecting the privacy of the very young is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 13, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.
